inspiring introduction initially written as a prologue to the english translation and commentary of the holy quran now printed separately by popular demand includes an excellent and affectionate life sketch of muhammad pbuh the holy prophet of islam a history of the compilation of the quran some prophecies in the quran and how these have been fulfilled and characteristics of the main quranic teachings the quran literally meaning the recitation also romanised koran is the central religious text of islam which muslims believe to be a revelation from god arabic allah it is widely regarded as the finest piece of literature in the arabic language muslims consider the quran to be the only book that has been protected by god from distortion or corruption quranic chapters are called suras and verses are called ayahs muslims believe that the quran was verbally revealed from god to muhammad through the angel gabriel jibril gradually over a period of approximately 23 years beginning on 22 december 609 ce when muhammad peace be upon him was 40 and concluding in 632 ce the year of his death shortly after muhammad s death the quran was collected by his companions using written quranic materials and everything that had been memorized of the quran muslims regard the quran as the most important miracle of muhammad the proof of his prophet hood and the culmination of a series of divine messages that started with the messages revealed to adam and ended with muhammad the quran assumes familiarity with major narratives recounted in the jewish and christian scriptures it summarizes some dwells at length on others and in some cases presents alternative accounts and interpretations of events the quran describes itself as a book of guidance it sometimes offers detailed accounts of specific historical events and it often emphasizes the moral significance of an event over its narrative sequence the quran is used along with the hadith to interpret sharia law during prayers the quran is recited only in arabic someone who has memorized the entire quran is called a hafiz some muslims read quranic ayahs verses with elocution which is often called tajweed during the month of ramadan muslims typically complete the recitation of the whole quran during tarawih prayers inimitability of the quran or i jaz is the belief that no human speech can match the quran in its content and form the quran is considered an inimitable miracle by muslims effective until the day of resurrection and thereby the central proof granted to muhammad in authentication of his prophetic status the concept of inimitability originates in the quran where in five different verses challenges opponents to produce something like the quran if men and sprites banded together to produce the like of this quran they would never produce its like not though they backed one another 17 88 so the suggestion is that if there are doubts concerning the divine authorship of the quran come forward and create something like it from the ninth century numerous works appeared which studied the quran and examined its style and content medieval muslim scholars including al jurjani d 1078ce and al baqillani d 1013ce have written treatises on the subject discussed its various aspects and used linguistic approaches to study the quran others argue that the quran contains noble ideas has inner meanings maintained its freshness through the ages and has caused great transformations in individual level and in the history some scholars state that the quran contains scientific information that agrees with modern science the doctrine of miraculousness of the quran is further emphasized by muhammad s illiteracy since the unlettered prophet could not have been suspected of composing the quran language updated and notes abridged by the editor the english translation of the holy quran with extensive explanatory footnotes by maulana muhammad ali d 1951 was first published in 1917 due to changes in the usage and teaching of english in the second half of the twentieth century such a reader today is much less familiar with certain forms and styles of literary expression used in the translation than was the case with previous generations to bring the language closer to the general readership it became necessary to replace some expressions by more modern forms this has been my aim in producing the present updated version of the translation the holy quran literally meaning the recitation also romanized as qur an or koran is the central religious text of islam which muslims believe to be a revelation from allah swt god the quran is divided into chapters surah in arabic which are then divided into verses ayah muslims believe that the quran was verbally revealed by god to muhammad through the angel gabriel jibril gradually over a period of approximately 23 years beginning on 22 december 609 ce when prophet muhammad saw was 40 and concluding in 632 the year of his death muslims regard the quran as the most important miracle of prophet muhammad saw a proof of his prophethood and the culmination of a series of divine messages that started with the messages revealed to prophet adam pbuh and ended with prophet muhammad saw the word quran occurs some 70 times in the text of the quran although different names and words are also said to be references to the quran this particular edition was translated by two madina based scholars dr muhsin khan and dr taqi ud din hilali it features frequent footnotes gleaned by the translators from tafsir at tabari al qurtubi and tafsir ibn kathir and sahih al bukhari it is unique remarkable and distinguished for its crystal clear precise and pristine meanings the work is recognised approved and widely attributed throughout the world offers commentary and hadith related to the verse this unique combination of commentary and relevant ahadith makes this a very useful study reference tool this edition consists of the english translation only about the publisher the noble quran encyclopedia is an effort towards providing reliable translations and exegesis of the quran in various languages the project is managed and run by islamhouse a subsidiary of the islamic dawah office in rabwah riyadh ksa the project currently hosts multiple translations in various widely spoken languages including english french spanish german turkish bosnian vietnamese uzbek tajik amharic hausa hindi urdu among others several other languages are currently being translated including chinese bulgarian russian and korean
