despite jesus prayer that all christians be one divisions have been epidemic in the body of christ from the beginning to the present we cluster in theological groups gender groups age groups ethnic groups educational and economic groups we criticize freely those who disagree with us don t look like us don t act like us and don t even like what we like though we may think we know why this happens christena cleveland says we probably don t in this eye opening book learn the hidden reasons behind conflict and divisions learn why i think all my friends are unique but those in other groups are all the same why little differences often become big sources of conflict why categorizing others is often automatic and helpful but can also have sinister side effects why we are so often victims of groupthink and how we can avoid it why women think men are judging them more negatively than men actually are and vice versa why choices of language can actually affect unity with a personal touch and the trained eye of a social psychologist cleveland brings to bear the latest studies and research on the unseen dynamics at work that tend to separate us from others learn why christians who have a heart for unity have such a hard time actually uniting the author provides real insight for ministry leaders who have attempted to build bridges across boundaries here are the tools we need to understand how we can overcome the hidden forces that divide us division polarization strife that's life as usual in today's world but it shouldn't describe the church it's time for Christians to listen reach out and work together for the common good but how can God's people achieve true unity in a fallen world what sort of cooperation is actually possible Luder Whitlock has an answer a good one and an appeal he shows how we can learn from studying God's views on church unity and from historical schisms as well as agreements and once we embrace the goal of unity Whitlock points us to specific realistic steps we can take to realize a united community under God book jacket

Williams proposes that our primary calling as humans is not to create unity but rather to seek authentic relationship with God ourselves one another and the world around us and that means actively engaging those with whom we disagree our religious political social and cultural differences can create doubt and tension but disunity also provides surprising gifts of perspective and grace by analyzing conflict and rifts in both modern culture and scripture Williams explores how our disagreements and differences our disunity can ultimately redeem us when the apostle Paul heard about the problems facing the church in Corinth he wrote them an intense and pointed letter in this revised BST volume David Prior shows the relevance of 1 Corinthians for our times with clear exposition of each passage information about the letter's historical background and key principles and applications for today churches all over the world work to spread the gospel of Christ but this work is done in many different ways by many different denominations Jesus and Paul were quite clear that the church of God was to be in total unity especially with regard to the teachings of the gospel so how do we bring the many denominations into a unity that will enhance a genuine team effort to present the true gospel to the world in unity in the faith author bradford mark rosenquist shows why church unity across all denominations is an absolutely necessary work that must be accomplished for gospel success first outlining what church unity is and what has been a historical obstacle to this unity rosenquist goes on to show how integral unity is to the gospel message of christ in the end unity in the faith provides both an analysis of unity as well as a roadmap that christians and church leaders can use to promote true unity in their congregations it takes a cooperative effort to reach the world with the truth about jesus and the kingdom of god the universal body of christ must therefore overcome the current disunity so that as one we can live up to christ's admonition to go into all the world and preach the gospel
