monroe katz cuts right to the heart of it the artist must find his own way to say what he has to say in paint pencil or clay but he has to be in a proper frame of mind as a passionate artist playing experimenting agonizing over subject matter daring failing cutting free trusting his or her inner voice being in the ring rather than in the grandstand yes the artist must dare to create from there dr katz takes us deep inside the high arts of painting and sculpting showing us how to convey feeling with color composition texture and above all the eye and heart of the artist at work whether he is depicting a rural landscape a bridge in the napa valley or the essence of his own daughter dr katz s top priority is transmitting through paint or clay what the artist is feeling inside and when you get that feeling right he says it s like music to your brush as he urges be daring don t sacrifice feeling for accuracy and draw every day and through these pages this gifted artist and storyteller helps guide and inspire you every step of the way using sketches and paintings from his beloved rembrandt and other great masters plus his own work the author explains composition color the use of light and shadow plus the joys of painting to music and the creative anguish that every artist faces on his journey of exploration and growth excerpt from on drawing and painting in beginning the study of any art we must learn what materials and terms are properly used in it and what modes of expression then we ought to have some practice in using the materials and terms and exercises in the different modes following the example of the masters this is equally true whether we propose to practice the art as a profession or wish merely to understand and appreciate without some experience without some technical knowledge and practice our understanding is sure to be superficial and our appreciation limited it is interesting to remember the passage of aristotle in the politics 1 where he says it is difficult if not impossible for those who do not perform to be good judges of the performances of others they who are to be judges should also be performers if we have never been performers we deny this proposition in self defence but if we have ever practiced any art we know that we are better critics and better judges just for that reason aristotle does not say that it is impossible for any one to be a good judge who is not also a performer it is difficult he says if not impossible nor does he say that the performer is sure to understand he is simply more likely to understand than any one who has never been a performer we know very well how many performers there are who do not understand who have neither appreciation nor judgment and we are willing to admit that certain persons not many are good judges though they have had no technical training we may be sure however that they would be better judges if they had had some training about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works the equivalent of a foundation course in traditional oil painting for beginning to intermediate level artists this in depth book uses the still life as a practical way to master oil techniques the still life is a practical forgiving genre as it does not require the likeness of a portrait or the accurate proportions of the figure and unlike the landscape it doesn't change with the weather instead it gives aspiring artists ample time to study and the opportunity to look closer it can be used as a purely formal subject for drawing and painting techniques or a platform for emotional expression using personal symbolism and imagery however though the still life is used throughout as a teaching tool this is first and foremost a book about oil painting it begins with simple compositions that build to more complex arrangements starting with essential information on how to best set up your studio including lighting equipment materials paints solvents brushes mediums and preparing your canvas and paper for oil painting still life painting atelier then offers concrete lessons in a logical progressive sequence with step by step illustrations finished paintings diagrams and tips chapters cover how to address composition through thumbnail sketches and line drawings using underpainting to study the characteristics of light and shade the basics of color theory and color mixing how to use a variety of brushes to create sharp and soft edges techniques that are helpful when painting metal and glass how to apply glazing and scumbling to bring luminosity and texture
