Recognizing that many are uninformed and confused about their doctrinal point of view in the Baptist Church, author Dr. E. Solomon Ernst offers more information about the doctrines of what Baptists believe and why they believe in "We Are Baptists." He presents a look at the fundamental truths of the Baptist Faith and Message, written especially for Baptists. The book is guided by the teachings of the Bible about the great truths of Jesus Christ. It focuses on God the Father, Son, Holy Spirit, the Holy Bible, and Man. It also contains a look at a host of teachings including the Baptist Church as the Body of Christ, sin, repentance, and salvation, God's grace, and the family. Baptist cooperation and other denominations, believers' water baptism, the Lord's Supper, evangelism, and more. "We Are Baptists" taps into the core of the Baptist witness and provides a relevant reflection and pedagogy upon the disciplines of the Baptist Faith, suited for textbook purposes in a seminary or Bible college, small group studies, and Bible study settings. It challenges, motivates, and helps Baptists understand they are people of the Bible.

Herschel Hobbs views his own life as one long series of personal encounters with God, beginning with the tragic death of his father when Hobbs was two years old and continuing through more than sixty years of pastoral service and his election as president of the largest Protestant denomination in America.

Southern Baptists are the nation's largest Protestant denomination with over 43,000 churches and millions of members. Since its inception, controversy has surrounded the Baptist Faith and Message. The 2000 Southern Baptists' most recent confession of faith, the present volume consists of essays by Baptist scholars explaining and defending that document. Each of the 18 articles of the BFM 2000 is addressed with special attention to the most critical issues and changes from the denomination's 1963 confession. Also included is an appendix comprising the full text of all three Baptist Faith and Message statements from the 20th century: 1925, 1963, and 2000, in side-by-side columns for easy reference and comparison. Contributors include Al Mohler, Paige Patterson, Tom Nettles, Dorothy Patterson, E. David Cook, and C. Ben Mitchell, with a foreword by Susie Hawkins. Brief yet comprehensive, detailed yet accessible to the non-specialist, this volume is a must-read for Southern Baptist professors and students, staff and church members, and anyone interested in one of the most powerful religious forces in America.

Mullins addressed groups within the Southern Baptist Convention led by C. P. Stealey, editor of the Oklahoma Baptist Messenger, who wanted a more explicit creationist message included in the convention statement of the Baptist Faith and Message.

Questions regarding the orthodoxy of Dale Moody and Ralph Elliott propelled the Southern Baptist Convention (SBC) toward a re-evaluation of its doctrinal statement, the Baptist Faith and Message (BFM). The SBC adopted this document in 1925 under the leadership of E. Y. Mullins. When faced by the challenge of modernism, this dissertation argues that the 1962 Committee on Baptist Faith and Message produced a document that expressed subtle shifts in Baptist theology. This shift had the effect of assuring the conservative base while allowing enough latitude in interpretation for those serving in the academy to teach more progressive views. After a first introductory chapter, chapters 2 and 3 trace the historical developments leading to the formation of the committee. Biblical inspiration and interpretation were key concerns, but as chapter 3 demonstrates, other concerns drew the attention of the committee. Chapters 4 and 5 deal with the ever-sensitive issue of the relationship between Baptist confessionalism, soul liberty, and soul competency. Each chapter examines how Baptist confessionalism functioned in relation to these concepts. Chapter 6 examines in detail the work of the committee itself and looks at those persons or groups who influenced the outcome of the committee's work. Of special note are the contributions made by Wayne Ward, Leo Garrett, the Religion Faculty of Mercer University, and the Theology Faculty of Southern Seminary. Chapter 7 examines four areas where the 1963 BFM altered the confessional expression of Baptist doctrines: 1. Scripture, 2. Man, 3. Salvation, 4. The Church. Chapter 8 is the conclusion. Four appendices contain early drafts of the committee's work.
