under the guise of islamic law the prophet muhammad s islam and the qur an states such as pakistan afghanistan egypt saudi arabia and bangladesh are using blasphemy laws to suppress freedom of speech yet the prophet never tried or executed anyone for blasphemy nor does the qur an authorize the practice asserting that blasphemy laws are neither islamic nor qur anic shemeem burney abbas traces the evolution of these laws from the islamic empires that followed the death of the prophet muhammad to the present day taliban her pathfinding study on the shari a and gender demonstrates that pakistan s blasphemy laws are the inventions of a military state that manipulates discourse in the name of islam to exclude minorities women free thinkers and even children from the rights of citizenship abbas herself was persecuted under pakistan s blasphemy laws so she writes from both personal experience and years of scholarly study her analysis exposes the questionable motives behind pakistan s blasphemy laws which were resurrected during general zia ul haq s regime of 1977 1988 motives that encompassed gaining geopolitical control of the region including afghanistan in order to weaken the soviet union abbas argues that these laws created a state sponsored infidel ideology that now affects global security as militant groups such as the taliban justify violence against all infidels who do not subscribe to their interpretation of islam she builds a strong case for the suspension of pakistan s blasphemy laws and for a return to the prophet s peaceful vision of social justice when pakistan was carved out of india in 1947 as a homeland for the muslims of the subcontinent it was envisioned as a secular state where non muslims would be granted freedom of religion and equal citizenship however the subsequent historical events led to a fast islamization of nearly every part of public life and discrimination against the country s religious minorities who today make up less than 4 per cent of the overall population based on extensive field work involving more than 100 non structured qualitative interviews this study explores the situation of the religious minorities and the dynamics of interfaith peacebuilding in the islamic republic of pakistan primary focus was laid on the practice of interfaith dialogue which given the draconic blasphemy laws differs from interfaith dialogue as conceived of in the west additionally other peacebuilding measures as offered by various non governmental organizations were taken into account be they advocacy promotion of human rights and unbiased education or policy negotiation with the government heike ruhland holds two master s degrees one in islamic studies university of zurich and one in international information management university of hildesheim she attained her phd from the academy of world religions university of hamburg this book on internal combustion engines brings out few chapters on the research activities through the wide range of current engine issues the first section groups combustion related papers including all research areas from fuel delivery to exhaust emission phenomena the second one deals with various problems on engine design modeling manufacturing control and testing such structure should improve legibility of the book and helps to integrate all singular chapters as a logical whole
