no one would ever regard the insignificant muddy watercourse that wanders through the eastern suburbs of melbourne australia as iconic or mystical there is nothing of the ganges or the thames or the mississippi about the yarra most people barely notice it s there and those who do tend to disparage its effluence yet for the two men who have spent most of their lives keeping the yarra channels flowing there is a kind of divine power there from a family tradition of riverboat men identical twins jay and vic walker see their almost religious respect for the river confirmed when their dredge brings up a small fortune the river s gift the gift however is conditional it comes with responsibility one that consumes them and changes their otherwise humdrum simple lives indelibly birthdays mark the significant steps in the walkers story and on his 50th birthday looking back jay attempts to make sense of his journey from the temporary sanctuary of his hospital room gently impelled forward by his psychiatrist he records the events as a birthday present for the eight year old boy in his family steadily unravelling the walker history into a tape recorder he narrates their trajectory from the dredge s revelation purchasing their identical honda gold wings and then encountering the homeless mo heany on her beaten up yamaha when they invite her to become their housekeeper their lifestyle changes irrevocably at the same time their dredging days give way to a very different kind of craft all fuelled by the secret stash under the barbecue in their backyard however as jay comes to understand ever more deeply the river has its price and ultimately the price must be paid what is dredged up must be accounted for who is responsible for the mysterious and deadly explosion on the tourist boat who in fact is the real father of the child the tape recording narrator s portrayal of his own world may be rather different from how the world really is the next century schools program was launched by the rjr nabisco foundation to fund bold ideas for fundamental change in public education this is the landmark book about that program and the schools that have participated now is the time for action and this book is about one thing only solutions
