portrays fifteen men and their gardens this is a book about opening our souls to honest awareness of grief and pain and letting god's all embracing love surround us each of the author's recollections encourage readers to find comfort in scripture and prayer as well as in the ordinary things in life marigolds willow branches relationships synchronicities and even beer in these simple stories she addresses those who are too sad and overwhelmed to seek companionship with god and others and she assures them that sacred healing is possible when they allow god's powerful love to embrace their hurting souls i don't know about you but i need all the help i can get when it comes to spiritually jump starting my day some days i get up and it is all i can do to concentrate on a few verses of scripture other days i feel tempted to blow off my twenty minutes of reading because i m anxious that i have too much to do on such days i have found it helpful to have a source to direct my thoughts toward god i need a tool to help me rouse my weary spirit and prepare to take on yet another day of kingdom building in short i need a wake up call do you so writes will davis jr in wake up calls wake up calls helps bleary eyed christians to better see god s kingdom it deals practically with such topics as temptation sin prayer relationships suffering conflict death and obedience with honesty and in your face clarity if you need a blast of kingdom reality that cuts through the morning s spiritual fog then wake up calls is for you faith seeking conviviality traces the journey of a u s missionary into brazil and beyond seeking to be faithfully present while also questioning the default settings of good intentions taking ivan illich as the primary theological guide on that journey faith seeking conviviality narrates the discovery of a renewed imagination for christian mission that arises as a response to two persistent questions first given the colonial history of christian missionary expansion on what basis do we go on fulfilling the great commission matt 28 16 20 as christ s disciples a second question intimately related to the first is what makes it possible to embody a distinctively christian presence that is missionary without being manipulative in doing theology with and after ivan illich faith seeking conviviality does not offer a pull off the shelf model for mission but rather a framework for embodying the incarnational logic of mission that entails a convivial turn delinking missionary discipleship from the lure of techniques and institutional dependence in order to receive and to share the peace of christ relationally in this volume fathers bevans and schroeder address a primary challenge faced by christians missionaries today how can they bring the christian tradition to interact respectfully and effectively with members of other cultures and traditions from around the globe and still be prophetic publisher website
