what you will learn in this book how can your attention be utilized as your energy is your life precisely what you wish it to be if not no matter the reason you can still learn to control your attention and thereby learn to create a better life real effectiveness of a conscious effort everything in life boils down to taking a conscious effort this is a concept which goes a long way in determining what happens or does not happen to an individual in the course of human life it has been proven time and time again that every decision taken in the mind of an individual would only see the light of day if a conscious effort is made to actualize it the reversal is the case if nothing is done meaning the idea would die a natural death no matter how good or vibrant it is intuitive predictions there are a lot of people that wonder about the question can a psychic predict the future many people would like to know what their future holds in store some people want to know if they will meet the perfect person and get married is life an illusion or fantasy or real subjective idea translates itself into physical materialization that is called earthly life it is not hard solid concrete fact but a subjective propellant forcing materialization that is interpreted as hard solid concrete reality how to use findings from behavioral economics behavioral economics modifies the standard economic model of rational economic man we according to these new studies typically act intuitively out of habit or automatically making choices based on rules of thumb in this book we discussed how to begin an implementation of the theory of constraints by getting consensus next you should begin to conduct an analysis of your system which is a kind of blend of value stream mapping and process mapping
