the author thomas moore is the son of fon moore a former united airlines pilot who in wwii was a pilot of a c47 skytrain fl ying the hump from india to china in the china burma india theatre when tom was a sophomore at thousand oaks high school ca his dad and older brother were killed in a car accident on the conejo grade in 1967 tom then threw himself into the arms of father god and desired to obtain a close personal relationship with god through the lord jesus christ as his personal savior in 1969 he joined the navy and when assigned to an oiler stationed in long beach ca he became the object of hatred and abuse as he was heavily persecuted for his christian faith he refused the invitation to join the crew at a brothel in the philippines which they took as a personal judgment against them tom returned love for their hate and decided by faith to always be full of joy three years later tom led exactly 10 of the ship s crew to faith in jesus tom s love for the lord jesus and his word led him to work on learning koine greek he developed his own learning program by making elementary style school readers in the koine greek this not only greatly accelerated his learning the greek but found that reading a collection of elementary greek scriptures became his favorite devotional it is tom s hopes that others will find the joy in learning and reading the greek text as he does castle rock co 730 24 something for everyone in this theological practicum of sanctification the book hones in on the relationship of dire trials to god s finished goal the glories of christ through his people intended for all who struggle this book is a must read for those who face daily battle with intense personal conflict whether in marriage at home or the workplace the way of sonship is a very personal read with a very hopeful end it is a linear walk from the intentional trial to the fruitful completion the houses of israel and judah dominate the scriptures from the time of king david until they both were sent into captivity each house had a destiny to fulfill these destinies are being worked out today what drives the destiny of these houses the birthright is a term that many in the church are aware of but without an understanding of its presence throughout the scriptures it is manifested as the dominion mandate and the fruitfulness mandate through the houses of israel and judah what are the implications for the coming kingdom of god and the sons of god we cannot know or comprehend this answer unless we understand the many foundational scriptures and concepts that establish god s heart and plan for the last days this study will challenge each person to be teachable and open to another perspective of god s plan for redemption god will reveal his plan for you and your place in his coming kingdom god is maturing his believers to rule and reign with him the book in overview is historical and instructional in content with the focus being on the biblical text in terms of its original form and language and in consideration of its full and proper context linguistically textually historically culturally and literarily it stresses the importance of moving from a knowledge of the bible to an understanding of its life giving instructions being studied in its entirety as a gift to mankind from a loving creator elohim the thrust of the book is accordingly threefold an indictment of two of mans religious systems judaism and christianity for syncretism corruption of elohims written word of truth and abuses of religious authority plus promulgation of religious traditions not aligned with the whole truth of elohims word a call to return to the one source of truththe written word of elohim understood in its originally written form and in its full and proper context providing the equipping and study tools necessary to move from a mere knowledge of the word to an understanding of its life giving instructionshow to live a redeemed life as elohim intended for all mankind this book will kick up a lot of religious dust in all of us it s what we do when the dust settles and our eyes are opened that will determine where we go from here it is only when we see him that we see our destiny we must not get offended with the truth the truth is the only thing that will set us free the enemy is behind offenses as he does not want us to reach our destiny each one of us has a marvelous unique destiny marked out by the price christ paid for it hebrews 12 1b puts it simply let us lay aside every weight and sin which does so easily beset us and let us run with patience the race that is set before us we would all agree that the church has a message for the world but would we all agree that the world has a message for the church they most assuredly do their cries identify the reason christ came to earth as a man and became the sacrifice for those cries for every cry there is a provision in his sacrifice has the church in general disclosed the real christ and his sacrifice that brings wholeness and purpose for all people regardless of denomination race and background the world is crying out to the church show me this man called jesus this book reveals truths to the world and the church that will awaken hope in both hope awakened in the church will bring her out of law into grace hope awakened in the world will bring the world to christ sir richard blackmore 1650 1729 was deeply affected by the protestant poetic trends in england which favored the sacred scriptures as a source for what was termed divine poetry his preference also prized the religious poetic trends as a spiritual weapon against vice and atheism his advocacy of ideas upholding virtue morality and christianity in a world that was undergoing phenomenal changes in its mores served as a backbone for the renewal and strengthening of the increasing popularity of divine poetry this work further explores the bible s influence on blackmore s physico theological poems his personal notions of a creator and his scientific ideas prophetic ministry in the bible has long been perceived as the exclusive domain of individuals who were powerful authoritative argumentative and almost always male this impression cannot be sustained in a logical and engaging way anna beresford convincingly shows us that female characters throughout the biblical story are not merely peripheral actors but are often the ones who proclaim god s prophetic word with disturbing clarity beginning with the few women acknowledged as prophets in the hebrew scriptural tradition beresford proceeds to uncover a surprising host of hidden female prophets among this cast we meet the widow whose last penny is consumed by organized religion the gate crasher who teaches a pious pharisee stern lessons in hospitality a woman who has the last word in a theological debate a woman used to trap jesus proclaims truth to power and a feisty foreign lady cleverly proves that god s love is for all of us regardless of gender or ethnicity this book is a compelling reminder that god speaks to all people women and men and calls on us to share the message whether it is convenient or not 2 tim 4 2 net this book continues the series with a focus on the eastern orthodox churches following their split in a d 1054 from roman catholicism which set a floor for ongoing heresies man made doctrines and pronouncements with influential church leaders pioneering these atrocities as equal bearers of authority in the same manner as the holy scriptures exploring the early councils attended by numerous catholic orthodox bishops which convened between a d 325 and 787 the author seeks to explain not only the reason for the split but what set the tone or floor leading to this rebellion against god s divine authority the decisions proclamations of the first seven councils hailed and elevated by these bishops as holy divine and authoritative were uncovered instead to be nothing more than man made hypocritical and on occasion even deceitful plagiarizing god s word as if it were their own words of wisdom exp first council canon 2 1 timothy 3 6 this rebellion played out into a reformation with martin luther pulling away resulting in the first protesting or protestant denomination the lutheran church unfortunately the lutherans only modified the beliefs of their mother church trading a pope for synods a restrictive liturgy for faith only salvation and holy tradition for confessions and creeds these modifications a mixture of truth with non truth to this day make discernment of god s desired work and worship more difficult to discern and worshipping in vain the more likely result matthew 15 9 paul told the colossians and whatever you do in word or deed do all not some in the name authority of the lord jesus col 3 17 mixing truth with non truth is like being lukewarm neither cold nor hot neither all in nor all out our lord had something to say regarding this did he not revelation 3 15 16
