what is the church in a day when people increasingly view the church as a relic of the past this may be the most important question christians can ask themselves the logical starting point is scripture in this thorough and engaging study of the church in the new testament kevin giles concludes that the church is first and foremost a christian community no other category offers greater breadth and depth of insight into its nature no other category offers such a challenge to western individualism nor such promise for the revitalization of the church in the postmodern world what on earth is the church is an exploration in new testament theology a careful study of the ecclesial community from jesus to paul and on through to revelation each category of new testament writings is carefully assessed with attention given to the early middle and late pauline letters and to the theology of each gospel giles finds in the new testament a community in transition never perfect always provisional and forever living in the tension between its present imperfection and its eschatological ideal the new testament does not promise an original community to be recaptured but a variety of perspectives on being the community of god in changing social environments the church at war is an interesting book that seeks to inspire believers into practical works that can transform communities in this book the author is calling the body of christ back to its fighting faith and calling in order to manifest the love and the kingdom of god in the communities that are afflicted by so many issues the church seems to have gone to sleep and to be sidetracked by other doctrines that could be a deception and a way of making the whole church lukewarm and not effective the book reminds the church that the gospel of jesus christ is confrontational in its nature and focuses and requires a church that has a great appetite to engage therefore kilton calls on the church to put on a warrior attitude and resist the schemes of the devil imposed on the communities in the nations
