this volume presents a cross section of current research on the internal syntax of determiner phrases dps with special emphasis on the analysis of dps modified by genitival adjectival and other non finite attributes possessors predicates and movement in the dp illustrates clearly the ongoing debate over older and more recent approaches to the syntax of dps in particular in the wake of the minimalist program chomsky 1995 and kayne s antisymmetry hypothesis kayne 1994 the relative theoretical coherence among the contributions permits detailed comparison of specific syntactic proposals providing a solid basis for further debate several of the papers address the syntactic questions in parallel with related semantic or morphological issues the value of this collection to the study of universal grammar is also underlined by its comparative bias analyses of germanic romance and balkan languages figure prominently and a number of new empirical generalizations within and between languages are discussed
