lise couture has been in the field of ear acupuncture for the last twentyseven years and her work is known in many countries including canada france argentina uruguay u s a spain and many others by the token of the conferences she gave at the lyon symposium in 1994 and in 2006 she was also a guest speaker at the first chinese symposium in toronto in may of 1986 in 2006 she heard about dr ulrich werth's method with the implants in the ears for treating parkinson's it reminded her dr paul nogier's words in one of the auricular magazines one day while treating a man in his clinic he related that he would have liked to crumble the point with many needles rather than only one the situation was really chronic and the patient needed help in her practice she had experienced that feeling too and she is amazed that dr werth came out with those microimplants inserted in different points of the ear to stop or slow down the destructive process of the parkinson's d lise is now in her third year of practice and research in the field of ear acupuncture and parkinson at the same time she keeps treating her regular patients but at a lower rhythm like dr paul nogier she is all ears to the stories of her patients the answer of the healing is in their life experiences that is her truth and living passion if she can have you walk shell do it d lise lives in ottawa with her son dannie and husband michel and rbeauvoisk since 1992

although most of the world approaches auricular therapy from a simplistic single phase model understanding the advanced phases 2 and 3 are critical to improving patient response especially in chronic inflammatory and degenerative conditions further understanding the concepts of advanced auricular therapy enables the clinician to enhance his/her understanding of the patient's pathophysiology and thus to approach the patient as a true clinician rather than as simply a technician ear acupuncture explores the practice of auriculotherapy a technique rooted in traditional chinese medicine where stimulating specific ear points can trigger healing responses throughout the body this book explains how the ear functions as a microsystem reflecting the entire body and it highlights the therapeutic potential for stress relief pain management and enhanced mental clarity without relying on pharmaceutical interventions notably auriculotherapy's modern form was significantly developed by dr paul nogier who identified correlations between ear points and anatomical locations the book begins with the history and theory behind ear acupuncture then presents a detailed map of ear acupoints and their corresponding body parts it progresses to therapeutic protocols for common issues like anxiety and digestive disorders culminating in advanced techniques and case studies by bridging theory and practice ear acupuncture provides a practical guide for both healthcare professionals and individuals interested in alternative therapies the ear is a micro system which reflects the entire body represented on the ear ear auricular acupuncture points are used on independent and specific organs in zones where the stimulation is applied for prevention and treatment of diseases ear points are tightly connected with human body organs and systems with body channels according to the traditional chinese medicine this book tells you about therapeutic and clinical methods and location of ear acupuncture point this book tells and shows you easily understandable explanation for finding the ear acupuncture point in english and chinese this book is for acupuncture students and practitioners
