have you ever danced on a dead mans chest or peeked into a crypt at a dead mans face have you ever soared over a valley like an eagle only without wings or watched an indian chief in full warriors dress thunder towards you on a great white stallion how about proving without a doubt that santa claus is real or maybe you have played with a live pacific coast rattle snake with your bare hands everyone has their own adventures and experiences to remember as they grow older and most probably look back upon those memories with fondness bubbins was blessed with being born at a time and place in the world where his freedom of movement was virtually wide open and with parents and a society who allowed such freedom with very few restrictions when you peer into a mirror smooth pond you discover someone there looking back at you is it you is it who you were or is it who you are now perhaps it might be who you will become take this journey with me let us peer into the reflections of time and discover for ourselves the answers to those questions speaking candidly to veteran sportswriter mike shalin for the first time about his often tumultuous career in major league baseball dennis oil can boyd recounts a life that began in the deep south of mississippi and the events that led him toward great heights atop the pitcher s mound at fenway park as part of a stellar rotation alongside bruce hurst and a young roger clemens boyd served a dazzling array of pitches to opposing batters most notably during the boston red sox ill fated 1986 world series run against the new york mets and while he was at once brilliant and focused on the mound off the field as he affectingly reveals here boyd was unraveled by the personal battles he waged with substance abuse and destructive mood swings as one of the few african american starting pitchers in the history of baseball boyd offers a candid insightful and often funny portrait of an athlete with boundless passion for the game his teammates and the boston red sox a political and personal odyssey from hatred to love when nonie darwish was a girl of eight her father died while leading covert attacks on israel a high ranking egyptian military officer stationed with his family in gaza he was considered a shahid a martyr for jihad yet at an early age darwish developed a skeptical eye about her own muslim culture and upbringing why the love of violence and hatred of jews and christians why the tolerance of glaring social injustices why blame america and israel for everything today darwish thrives as an american citizen a christian a conservative republican and an advocate for israel to many she is now an infidel but she is risking her comfort and her safety to reveal the many politically incorrect truths about muslim culture that she knows firsthand
