from the master of micro history a reconstruction of two contrasting early modern thinkers nevertheless comprises essays on machiavelli and on pascal the ambivalent connection between the two parts is embodied by the comma in the subtitle machiavelli pascal is this comma a conjunction or a disjunction in fact both ginzburg approaches machiavelli s work from the perspective of casuistry or case based ethical reasoning for as machiavelli indicated through his repeated use of the adverb nondimanco nevertheless there is an exception to every rule such a perspective may seem to echo the traditional image of machiavelli as a cynical machiavellian thinker but a close analysis of machiavelli the reader as well as of the ways in which some of machiavelli s most perceptive readers read his work throws a different light on machiavelli the writer the same hermeneutic strategy inspires the essays on the provinciales pascal s ferocious attack against jesuitical casuistry casuistry vs anti casuistry machiavelli s secular attitude towards religion vs pascal s deep religiosity we are confronted apparently with two completely different worlds but pascal read machiavelli and reflected deeply upon his work a belated contemporary echo of this reading can unveil the complex relationship between machiavelli and pascal their divergences as well as their unexpected convergences

a collection of essays that span many regions and cultures by an award winning historian sanjay subrahmanyam is becoming well known for the same sort of reasons that attach to fernand braudel and carlo ginzburg as the proponent of a new kind of history in his case not longue durée or micro history but connected history connected cross culturally and spanning regions subjects and archives that are conventionally treated alone not a research paradigm he insists it is more of an oppositionswissenschaft a way of trying to constantly break the moulds of historical objects the essays collected here some quite polemical as in the lead text on the notion of india as civilization or another assessing such a literary totem as v s naipaul illustrate the breadth of subrahmanyam s concerns as well as the quality of his writing connected history considers what exactly is an empire the rise of the west less of a place than an idea or ideology he insists churchill and the great man theory of history the reception of world literature and the itinerary of subaltern studies in addition to personal recollections of life and work in delhi paris and lisbon and concluding remarks on the practice of early modern history and the framing of historical enquiry
