mimesis is a critical and philosophical term going back to aristotle it carries a wide range of meanings including imitation representation mimicry the act of expression and the presentation of self in modern literary criticism mimesis has received renewed attention in the last two or three decades and been subject to wide ranging interpretations nicolae babuts looks at the concept of mimesis from a cognitive perspective he identifies two main strands the mimetic relation of art and poetry to the world defined in terms of reference to an external reality and the importance of memory in the making of plots or storytelling babuts suggests that there is a material identity we cannot know beyond the limits of our senses and intellect and a symbolic or coded identity that is processed by memory all writers including mallarme in his esoteric poetry flaubert in his realist narratives and mihai eminescu the romanian poet in his romantic poems rely on mimetic strategies to link the two identities the images in memory to the outside reality all order their narratives in accordance with the dynamics of memory babuts describes this phenomenon with great insight showing how new traditions are formed in the chaos of the current world such as wars epidemics natural disasters greed cruelty dishonesty meanness and lies among the people questions arise what is going on who am i where is this what was i born on this earth to do why are people cruel to nature and to humans these questions haunt even my dreams therefore i write as an effort to rescue myself to free myself from the hurts screams and pains the night i and contains the sounds of confusion brokenness and worry for human beings including myself humans are so small and fragile walking back and forth on earth always facing unforeseeable uncertainties after struggling experiences and facing the night darkness and many mysteries i have more energy to love share be tolerant and attach to life and people the more pain and sorrow i feel over evil and badness the more i hope that day by day people will live more kind and the world will be peaceful hft
