the aim of this issue is to provide the thoracic surgeon with information about the staging and treatment of cancer to the mediastinal lymph nodes the issue includes articles on the anatomy and physiology of the lymph nodes imaging of the lymph nodes and various techniques for diagnosing and dissecting the lymph nodes including video assisted mediastinoscopic lymphadenectomy and transcervical extended mediastinal lymphadenectomy

this multidisciplinary textbook is designed to be the standard on the subject and is geared for use by physicians who are involved in the care and or diagnosis of cancer patients comprehensive coverage is provided on all aspects of radioguided surgery practical information is readily accessible and throughout there is an emphasis on improved decision making tables present the indications performance and interpretation of procedures at a glance a wealth of illustrations including a full color insert enhances the application of new concepts chapters that are new or radically changed include the opening chapter on the health needs of women in a changing society teaching and learning surgical techniques and chapters on minimal access surgery which are richly illustrated by remarkable photographic images chapters on pelvic floor and cancer surgery retain well established operative procedures where relevant but include accounts of exciting newer techniques such as robotic surgery up to the minute chapters on radiology radiotherapy and chemotherapy are provided by colleagues from these specialties who now form part of modern multidisciplinary teams the 6th edition which appeared in 2001 reflected the growing replacement of conventional abdominal and vaginal surgery with radiological interventions endoscopic surgery and medical treatments the last 10 years have seen worldwide acceptance of the benefits of less invasive gynaecological procedures allowing ever shorter stay in hospital and quicker recovery for the patient but often with the use of much more expensive and complex technological equipment at the same time there has been an increasing trend towards super specialisation so that in many parts of the world gynaecologists focus on a narrower field of activity specialists need to be aware of these developments even though the individual gynaecologist may carry out only a limited range of operations or therapies the structure of the book has been changed radically separating benign from malignant conditions congenital from acquired and with a strong emphasis on patient choice safety and prevention of complications includes the transactions of the american surgical association new york surgical society philadelphia academy of surgery southern surgical association central surgical association and at various times of other similar organizations
