tani s dissertation is the most stunningly original and intelligent i have encountered in 25 years of teaching wrote the late novelist john gardner tani s argument says that the mystery story as written by hammett and others and touted by the french existentialists led to a new kind of novel and the old style mystery as written by for example agatha christie seemed a literary dead end a conservative if not reactionary game in recent years tani shows the seeming dead end has led to the most important literary movement now visible the ironic intellectual fiction of people ranging from borges and barth to calvino and he proves that the spearhead of this movement is italian fiction as influenced by american mystery fiction at first glance the argument seems outrageous the brilliance of tani's thesis besides the original outrageous idea is that he solidly and systematically makes his case past traces the roots of the twentieth century literature and cinema of crime to two much earlier diverging interpretations of the criminal the bodiless figure of cesare beccaria's enlightenment era on crimes and punishments and the biological offender of cesare lombroso's positivist criminal man
