explores the history of islam in the largest muslim nation state in the world located on the eastern periphery of the historical muslim world as a political entity indonesia is barely a century old yet with close to a quarter of a billion followers of islam it is now the largest and most populous muslim country in the world as the greatest political power in southeast asia and a growing player on the world scene indonesia presents itself as a bridge country between asia the wider muslim world and the west in this survey carool kersten presents the islamisation of indonesia from the first evidence of the acceptance of islam by indigenous peoples in the late thirteenth century until the present day he provides comprehensive insight into the different roles played by islam in indonesia throughout history including the importance of indian ocean networks for connecting indonesians with the wider islamic world the religions role as a means of resistance and tool for nation building and postcolonial attempts to forge an aindonesian islam key features the first comprehensive historical survey of the islamisation of indonesia from the arrival of islam in the 13th century until the present an interdisciplinary study of the place and role of islam in indonesia an overview of the religions growing significance in the formation of what is now the largest and most populous muslim country in the world

islamic institutions have had a very long history whose performance was muted during the colonial period however after the second world war the revival of the islamic institutions began throughout its history it had been assumed that these institutions are working for the betterment of humanity their target is to achieve a high level of the welfare for the concerned community historically these institutions were waqf zakat and sadaqat however from the last three decades islamic financial institutions have been established with the objective of providing interest free products transaction and services for muslims however there has been lot of criticism on the performance and role of these institutions this becomes especially pertinent in a muslim country like indonesia where there is a dire need to know that how these institutions are working and if it is possible for them to achieve the objectives of the shari ah some scholars have claimed that these institutions are performative and only serving lip service and there are no significant differences between the islamic and secular institutions where both kinds of institutions operate on the same foundations and differ only in use of technical terminologies this volume aims to analyze some of the islamic institutions which are operating in the world s biggest muslim country indonesia as a case study and analyze the contemporary islamic banking products and practices in the light of maqasad al shari ah the book s objective is to propose an improved system of islamic institutions for muslims to refer to this volume will also analyze why these institutions are currently not able to comply with the maqasad al shari ah and how it is possible to enhance the level of economic development social wellbeing individual freedom and equality elimination of injustice and poverty and achieve the other targets of the maqasad through these institutions the works of islamic mysticism are a crucial genre of islamic piety and the lives of the awliya friends of god have been and continue to be a crucial way in which the theoretical insights of sufism are embodied and communicated to a wider audience traditionally these genres would be deciphered by a living sufi master here john renard acts as our sufi guide transporting us to the marvelous world of islamic piety omid safi news media coverage book launch of golden dragon and purple phoenix 3rd july 2013 many books have been written about the chinese in southeast asia but very few if any are written specifically about the multi ethnic descendants of chinese immigrants golden dragon and purple phoenix is not about the diaspora per se of chinese in southeast asia but about the impact of intermarriage between chinese immigrants and the natives that is the intermingling of blood and the offspring from such unions the influence they wielded on the society and environment they chose to live in it is also about how they rose to high positions and their contributions to their societies some rose to become kings or king makers others to become presidents prime ministers senior ministers prominent businessmen or religious leaders some openly declared their ancestry and are proud of their chinese dna while others have forgotten their heritage and in their fervour to prove their allegiance to their country of birth dissociate themselves assertively through violence indirectly through economic sanctions and various other means in short the multi ethnic chinese descendants form a unique community with unique cultural genes of its own and these fresh and rarely known stories about them in this book will be a good resource for historical researchers as well as fascinating reading materials for readers in general with 14 years experience as a journalist and a 29 year career as a politician and diplomat mr lee khoo choy has set foot on every land in southeast asia and observed closely the local life in each country mindful of his hakka identity mr lee has a keen interest in multi ethnic chinese descendants in southeast asian countries such as thailand indonesia the philippines singapore and malaysia etc contents the lokjins in thailand the mestizos of the philippines the mingling of chinese and javanese blood the peranakan the tayoke kabaya and the kok myanmar the konkat cen in cambodia the minh huong of vietnam sino laos and the hmong in laos baba and nyonya malaysia westernised singaporeans brunei land of the smiling people readership general readers academics professionals and students who are interested in the history and culture of multi ethnic chinese descendants in ten southeast asian countries including their language lifestyle influence as well as stories on prominent state leaders and business of chinese heritage keywords southeast asia mixed blood chinese culture key features brings new knowledge about the chinese immigrants in southeast asia showcases the differences between chinese immigrants and their multi ethnic descendants brings awareness to the large portion of younger chinese citizens of southeast asia java's pilgrimage culture is a dense batik like pattern of contradictions seriousness collides with laughter curiosity with bewilderment piety with scepticism intense spirituality with in some places the joy of shopping the pilgrimage culture on the island of java in indonesia the world's largest muslim country is a rebuke to the conservative orthodoxy that has been gaining ground in indonesia's religious landscape since the 1980s in the rhetoric of this orthodoxy the real islam is pure and exclusive piety comes from obedience to religious authority and its rules local pilgrimage is anything but pure and exclusive or rigidly authoritarian it is powerfully islamic but it fuses islam with local history the ancient power of place and a pastiche of devotional practices with roots deep in the pre islamic past quietly but tenaciously just outside the great echo chamber of public space it is growing as fast as the higher profile neo orthodoxy bandit saints of java delves deep under the surface of modern indonesia exploring personalities and stories in the weird world of local pilgrimage where middle eastern islam wrestles with the ancient power of javanese civilisation it paints an astonishing portrait of islam as it is practised today largely invisible to journalists scholars and tourists by many of java s 130 million people this intriguing three volume set explores the ways in which religion is bound to the practice of daily life and how daily life is bound to religion in religion and everyday life and culture 36 international scholars describe the impact of religious practices around the world using rich examples drawn from personal observation instead of repeating generalizations about what religion should mean these volumes examine how religions actually influence our public and private lives on the ground on a day to day basis volume one introduces regional histories of the world s religions and discusses major ritual practices such as the catholic mass and the islamic pilgrimage to mecca volume two examines themes that will help readers understand how religions interact with the practices of public life describing the ways religions influence government education criminal justice economy technology and the environment volume three takes up themes that are central to how religions are realized in the practices of individuals in these essays readers meet a shaman healer in south africa laugh with buddhist monks sing with bob dylan cheer for australian rugby and explore chicana and iranian art includes contributions from 36 scholars from a dozen countries around the globe
