from award winning financial times journalist gillian tett who enraged wall street leaders with her news breaking warnings of a crisis more than a year ahead of the curve fool s gold tells the astonishing unknown story at the heart of the 2008 meltdown drawing on exclusive access to j p morgan ceo jamie dimon and a tightly bonded team of bankers known on wall street as the morgan mafia as well as in depth interviews with dozens of other key players including treasury secretary timothy geithner gillian tett brings to life in gripping detail how the morgan team s bold ideas for a whole new kind of financial alchemy helped to ignite a revolution in banking and how that revolution escalated wildly out of control the story begins with the intense morgan brainstorming session in 1994 beside a pool in boca raton where the team cooked up a dazzling new idea for the exotic financial product known as credit derivatives that idea would rip around the banking world catapult morgan to the top of the turbocharged derivatives trade and fuel an extraordinary banking boom that seemed to have unleashed banks from ages old constraints of risk but when the morgan team's derivatives dream collided with the housing boom and was perverted through hubris delusion and sheer greed by titans of banking that included citigroup, ubs, deutsche bank and merrill lynch catastrophe followed. Tett's access to dimon and the j p morgan leaders who so skillfully steered their bank away from the wild excesses of others sheds invaluable light not only on the untold story of how they engineered their bank's escape from carnage but also on how possible it was for the larger banking world regulators and rating agencies to have spotted and heeded the terrible risks of a meltdown. A tale of blistering brilliance and willfully blind ambition, Fool's Gold is both a rare journey deep inside the arcane and wildly competitive world of high finance and a vital contribution to understanding how the worst economic crisis since the great depression was perpetrated.

What's wrong with the world today and how might it become better or worse? These are the questions pursued in this book, which explores the hopes and fears, dreams and nightmares of the 21st century through architecture, fiction, theory, film, and experiments with everyday life. Sargisson explores contemporary hopes and fears about the future.

Written with Fleur's trademark warmth and outstanding storytelling, newly badged detective Dave Burrows and his reluctant wife arrive in the west Australian goldfields town of Barrabine, where gold stealing is rife and the prospectors live by their own tough rules. To Dave, the posting to Barrabine was exactly what he'd wanted: it was a town on the edge of the wild west where there would be excitement, mystery, and intrigue. Here, everything a detective looked for. Detective Dave Burrows' first posting to the far west goldfields town of Barrabine in 1997 holds everything he's looking for. But Melinda, his wife of two weeks, is devastated at leaving behind her family, friends, and career. More comfortable in heels than in a bush, Melinda walked away from her much-loved job in the city as a paediatric nurse to follow Dave into the bush. Dave settles in easily to the plain-speaking toughness of his new town, determined to do well, knowing that Barrabine could be his stepping stone into the elite stock squad. But will his marriage last the distance as Dave investigates reports of mysterious late night trespassing, a missing person, and guns being drawn on strangers? A local prospector phones in with horrific news that could hold the key to everything. Fleur McDonald's bestselling rural storytelling takes her popular detective Dave Burrows back to his compelling and exciting beginnings.
