matthew mark luke and john all wrote gospel accounts highlighting the life and ministry of jesus of nazareth however hundreds of years prior to these writings another man took up his pen and wrote words fifteen verses as they appear in our bible today that briefly outline the same life from a different perspective that man was isaiah in this book we go through isaiah 53 and break down the prophecy of the suffering servant we discover why the servant can only be jesus of nazareth we learn what happened to him when he came to earth the first time we uncover the truth of the cross and what it means for us as believers also we discover the ministry that jesus continues to engage in today join me on this journey as we open the scripture together matthew s jesus is typically described as the humble compassionate messiah this 2002 book argues that this is however only half the story matthew s theologically rich quotation of isaiah 42 1 4 traditionally considered one of the four servant songs underscores that manifest in jesus powerful message and deeds particularly his healings and inclusion of the marginalized is the justice that was thought to accompany the arrival of the kingdom of god the study explores modifications to the text form of the isaianic citations their relationship to the surrounding context and the rhetorical force of the final form it argues that the quotations are bi referential functioning on both a narrative and theological level and also explores the issues surrounding the troublesome extraneous content it arrives at the conclusion that this citation was central to matthew s understanding of jesus life and mission all totalled this study offers a refreshing exploration of matthew s high ethical christology as howard peskett guides you through these eleven session lifeguide bible study on isaiah you ll dig deep into the prophet s revolutionary message of repentance forgiveness and hope and you ll find comfort for coping with your own troubled times who is the servant of isaiah 52 13 53 12 answering this question is what this study is all about through the centuries countless commentaries have been written tracts have been distributed debates have raged over the identification of the servant in this passage here we investigate the evidence presented over the last 2000 thousand years for the two leading candidates for this role of servant of the lord the two are jesus and the jewish people christians see in this passage the literal fulfillment by jesus of all it contains jews see it in its plain meaning as a historical overview of jewish history and the suffering to be endured by the nation of israel until the final redemption source materials used by opposing sides in discussing this passage are thoroughly reviewed in particular each verse in the passage is studied in depth but the purpose of this volume is not simply to have an intellectual discussion of the issues involved its intent is to make it an unavoidable issue for christians that there are very real disqualifications of jesus from being the suffering servant and to identify the subject of the servant passage as none other than the nation of israel furthermore we seek to educate jews so they do not fall prey to those who would have them believe jesus is the messiah

this is a large print 16 point 827 page publication containing the series of seventy seven studies in the gospel of isaiah written by elder e j waggoner they appeared as weekly articles in the present truth in 1898 1899 and 1900 introductory material since we begin in this number of the paper some studies in isaiah it is fitting that before we begin them we should consider the place which the prophecy of isaiah occupies in scripture its relation to us and its right to be called the gospel of isaiah this last item however will appear from the prophecy itself as we proceed in our study inasmuch as everybody has the bible in the so called authorized version and can refer to it at pleasure and very many have the revised also it has been thought best in the present study to give the readers the benefit of another translation the one chosen has been that of bishop lowth which is without doubt as a whole the best english translation of the prophecy of isaiah accordingly we shall print the text of this as above and shall in the notes give the student the benefit of any other translations that serve to make any portion of the text more striking this statement of the case will serve for the regular reader so that it will not need to be repeated let everyone who proposes to derive lasting benefit from these studies of the gospel according to isaiah give heed to the following counsel first of all study the text carefully how read it again and again taking special pains to find out exactly what it says note the dependence of every verse and sentence upon that which precedes nobody in the world can tell you anything that is true concerning the text that is not found in the text itself and if you give heed you can tell what the lord says as well as anybody for he uses the language of the common people the notes that follow are only designed to fix your attention more sharply on what is contained in the text and to help you to retain it by associating it with other familiar portions of scripture you will see that nothing is introduced that is not contained in the text of the lesson and will thus learn how rich is the word of god life in the world to come will be very real strangely enough the term real life conveys to most people a sense of hardness and bitter suffering how sad it is that so many know of no joy except in imagination and find no happiness except in dreams but the real that which god creates is infinitely beyond the wildest flights of human imagination imagination is not needed by the servants of god for the real brings to them wonders of joy and happiness and knowledge that have never been conceived of by any human heart there will be nothing vague or misty or shadowy in the new earth but people will associate together just as in this world only with no trace of sin it is sin that has made this earth what it is and all the change that is needed to make it new is to remove sin from it they shall build houses and inhabit them they shall plant vineyards and eat of the fruit of them there will be possessions in the land but no buying and selling for everything will be free as the gift of god all mine is thine will be the motto of every inhabitant that which socialists vainly dream of and infinitely more is assured to men through the gospel
