the inadequacies of contemporary forms of governance are increasingly recognized the brain drain from politics distrust of governments the danger of mass media and money dominated elections and the failure of governments to find good policy options on major issues industry civil society and non governmental organizations however important cannot compensate for government s incapacity to shape the future which only it is democratically entitled to do radical improvements in governance are urgently needed but salient proposals are scarce this book diagnoses contemporary governments as obsolete and proposes changes in values structures staffing public understanding and political culture to equip governance for the radically novel challenges of the 21st century this is the first report dealing with governance commissioned and approved by the club of rome testifying to the significance of this book

it s time to sit back relax and escape for awhile as you enjoy visiting an almost magical planet some sixteen light years away the always fresh air and beautiful weather coupled with a warm and friendly people who enjoy their stress free lives to the fullest certainly are enviable throughout this story are commentaries about earth and the people on it maybe it s unfair to compare an alien world with earth or is it are there things we can learn these commentaries offer a different point of view and maybe a chance for a dialog between the people of earth if nothing else it will make you think a provocative work by medical ethicist james hughes citizen cyborg argues that technologies pushing the boundaries of humanness can radically improve our quality of life if they are controlled democratically hughes challenges both the technophobia of leon kass and francis fukuyama and the unchecked enthusiasm of others for limitless human enhancement he argues instead for a third way democratic transhumanism by asking the question destined to become a fundamental issue of the twenty first century how can we use new cybernetic and biomedical technologies to make life better for everyone these technologies hold great promise but they also pose profound challenges to our health our culture and our liberal democratic political system by allowing humans to become more than human posthuman or transhuman the new technologies will require new answers for the enduring issues of liberty and the common good what limits should we place on the freedom of people to control their own bodies who should own genes and other living things which technologies should be mandatory which voluntary and which forbidden for answers to these challenges citizen cyborg proposes a radical return to a faith in the resilience of our democratic institutions
