the story takes place in Sanson, Mississippi, a fictitious town that has escaped the tumultuous events of the civil rights movement and the Vietnam War by burying its head in the sand like an ostrich. In Sanson, people in the Southside don't mix with those on the Northside except for two kids, Elizabeth, who is Black, and Joseph, who is white. Elizabeth and Joseph learn about race, religion, and life from each other when the unthinkable happens to Elizabeth. Joseph must defend himself while trying to find the horrible person who savagely raped her.

This book guides sport coaches, parents, and administrators in creating a caring and task-involving sport climate that helps athletes perform their best and have an enjoyable and meaningful sport experience. It introduces the concept of a caring and task-involving climate and provides a how-to guide to creating this climate in sport. Firstly, this guide introduces the caring and task-involving climate and summarizes research highlighting its many benefits. This book finally highlights how parents and sport administrators can support the creation and preservation of caring and task-involving climates by helping teams develop caring climates that optimize athletes' sport experience and performance. What difference does it make? The corner stone quote of Hillary Clinton preparing for an election, "that same statement can be applied today when coaches want instant gratification, bypassing basic fundamentals of the sport they are coaching." Learning the fundamentals of any sport is a long process and doesn't happen overnight. High school coaches that stay in high school teach basic fundamentals, helping everyone understand that there is no shortcut to success. This book is about sports fans who didn't have a high school coach that made a difference in their life. This book covers all sports in the Texas Panhandle Plains region governed by the UIL. There is a section for each sport showing the history of high school state championships between this area and other regions. What makes this book different is the legendary coaches are nominated.

by their peers and is about high school coaches only
