this book explores the ways in which four visual artists make sense of referentialism and emotion in music by listening to five art songs by schubert strauss fauré and berlioz they were inspired to create new artworks as a result of their understanding of the meaning of the art songs this was done without an understanding of the text and the artists had to rely on referential meaning in music as well as the perceived or evoked emotions elicited by listening to the art songs the artworks created as a result of this project were exhibited at the aardklop national arts festival entitled nagmusiek this was a multi modal exhibition featuring music art and text this book employs artistic research and phenomenology in order to understand this phenomenon as i explored the artists creative processes experiences and the tacit knowledge embedded in their artefacts this book would provide readers access to 20 new artworks each created as a result of the artists interpretation of the meaning they ascribed to art song their creative process is also examined and synthesised with existing literature on emotion and referentialism in music opening with an account of print portraiture facilitating franz liszt s celebrity status and concluding with riot grrrl s noisy politics of feminism and performance this interdisciplinary anthology charts the relationship between music and the visual arts from late romanticism and the birth of modernism to postmodernism while crossing from western art to the middle east focused on music as a central experience of art and life these essays scrutinize the musicalisation of art focusing on the visual and performing arts and detailing significant instances of intra art relations between c 1840 and the present day essays reflect on the aesthetic relationships of music to painting performance and installation sound and silence time and space the insistent influence of wagner is considered as well as the work and ideas of manet satie and cage thomas wilfred la monte young and eliasson what distinguishes these studies are the convictions that music is never alone and that a full understanding of the isms of the last two hundred years is best achieved when music s influential presence in the visual arts is acknowledged and interrogated in this work ken bielen explains how album cover art authenticates recording artists in a particular genre he considers albums issued from the 1950s to the 1980s the golden era of record album cover art the whole album package is studied including the front and back covers the inside cover the inner sleeve and the liner notes performers in rock and roll folk and folk rock soul and disco psychedelic americana nostalgia and singer songwriter genres are included in this study of hundreds of record album covers this work details the seventy year history of the album cover and includes full color photographs
